Let's plan to talk soon. We are in a holding pattern and may have big changes on the horizon – prefer to discuss in a 1-on-1 call.

Amanda,

I was hoping we could try to talk on the phone today (or tomorrow) about your resource needs moving into next week. The main question is if you still want a two-person field team, a float, and someone at the command post. Or, if you want 2 two-person field teams (if so, better understanding how Jamie and contract support will integrate into your approach). I'm available after 4 PM (MT) today. If you let me know if you are available, I'll set-up a call line.

Main changes to the schedule: I have spoken with Viola about deploying and added her availability. Carlin needed to change her schedule. Sarah will fly straight from MA on Sunday. I pushed Secody's schedule back; although I have not spoken with him. I don't have redeploying next week, since he is not coming home until Wednesday. I'm unclear if Linda would want to redeploy next week.
